1. Read the text and circle the objects that Emiliana has in her backpack

My name is Emiliana. Today is my first day of school and I am very excited. I am a new student. I lived in a farm but my parents decided to move to Medellín to have a better job and because my town was very violent.

Today for school, I have a small red backpack. In my backpack, there is a notebook. I want to use it for Spanish class. There is also a pencil case; there are color and there is a pencil in it. I have a small lunch box in my backpack. My mom prepared an arepa with cheese and I also have an apple in it. In my backpack, there is also a ruler, a sharpener and an eraser.

I am in classroom 3B. It is big and it has a white board. There are many desks and chairs, and there are a lot of books in a shelf. My teacher is very kind, she is talkative and friendly. My school is very different; there are many classrooms and computer. My old school was very small and there was only one classroom for many children but I learned a lot there!
